

WHO SHOULD WE ADMIT TO OBSTETRIC HIGH DEPENDENCY UNIT?

If your patient falls into any of the below categories, please also capture them in WardWatcher

UNWELL PATIENT

The patient requires closer 'HDU' monitoring than is normally provided

TREATMENT

The patient is having prolonged or frequent seizures requiring intervention.

The patient is on a treatment protocol for DKA or starvation ketoacidosis.

BLOOD LOSS

The patient has a PPH of $\geq 2.5\text{L}$ OR has lost 30% of blood volume based on 100ml/kg booking weight.

The patient has a Bakri balloon or vaginal packing insitu.

DRUGS

The patient is receiving one or more infusions for blood pressure control (e.g., hydralazine, labetalol, GTN, magnesium, phenylephrine, noradrenaline)

The patient is on a magnesium infusion for neuro protection of the baby, severe pre-eclampsia or eclamptic fit

RESPIRATORY

The patient is on >50% oxygen.

The patient is receiving BiPAP/CPAP

INVASIVE LINES

The patient has a central venous catheter or arterial line in-situ.